MEMORANDUM FOR: Assistant Director, National Estimates
Assistant Director, Scientific Intelligence
Assistant Director, Research and Reports
Assistant Director, Current Intelligence
Assistant Director, Collection and Dissemination
Assistant Director, Operations

SUBJECT: Outside Lecturers for the DD/I Offices

1. In view of the fact that CIA personnel are, in general, not permitted to attend War College lectures as has previously been the practice the question has arisen regarding the kind of topics which might be usefully discussed in a lecture series for the Agency.

2. Mr. Becker has suggested to the Office of Training that it would be very useful if the Intelligence Offices could listen to the point of view of an end-user of intelligence regarding our intelligence product. In order to identify the needs and views of the Offices on this question it would be appreciated if a representative of your Office would meet with Colonel Baird and myself in my Office on Monday, 10 November, at 2:30.

3. It would be helpful if your representative could have in mind for our discussion at that time the answers to the following questions:

a. What U. S. policy or operating officials, who are end-users of the intelligence produced by your office, would you like to have come to the Agency to give lectures on their view of what needs intelligence should satisfy.

b. What governmental or extra-governmental people would you like to have brought into the Agency to give lectures and on what subjects other than in a. above.

JAMES Q. REEDER
Assistant Director
